The DPPC commends Members of the House and Senate Armed Services Committees for their leadership and efforts to include the Cheney/Crow amendment in the FY2021 National Defense Authorization Act. This "report first" approach ensures that any withdrawal of U.S. troops requires a detailed report to include information and analysis on the state of terrorism, and any decisions critically impacting national security must be made with the most accurate and transparent information.

Congressional support of systematic policy for U.S. engagement in Afghanistan is critical to protect joint U.S.-Afghan national security interests, promote a sustainable peace process, and preserve the gains of the past 19 years including legal protections for women, children and minority groups, a free press, civil society, universal education, and a representative government.

The Honorable Jack Reed
Ranking Member
U.S. Senate Committee on Armed Services
228 Russell Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

December 11, 2020

Dear Chairman Inhofe, Chairman Smith, Ranking Member Reed, and Ranking Member Thornberry,

On behalf of the Afghanistan – U.S. Democratic Peace and Prosperity Council (The DPPC), I write you to express my sincere appreciation for your work on the Armed Services Committee, and your recognition of the importance to include the Cheney/Crow amendment in the Fiscal Year 2021 National Defense Authorization Act. The bipartisan support for a deliberate and systematic policy for U.S. engagement in Afghanistan to combat transnational terrorist threats is critical to protecting joint U.S.-Afghan national security interests.

The DPPC supports the efforts by Congress to ensure any withdrawal of U.S. troops reaching 4,000 or below 2,000 requires a detailed report to include information and analysis on the state of terrorism, Afghanistan National Defense and Security Forces (ANDSF), North Atlantic Treaty Organization's Resolute Support mission, diplomatic action, regional influences, and any U.S. citizen detained in Afghanistan. We believe this "report first" approach ensures that any decisions that critically impact national security be made with the most accurate and transparent information. Additionally, the DPPC is supportive of the new requirement for developing a strategy for post-conflict protection of human rights, including women and children, as well as the authorization of $4,015,612,000 in support of the ANDSF.

The ongoing intra-Afghan peace talks is a historic opportunity for Afghanistan to end 40 years of war. With your help we can achieve long term and sustainable peace that protects joint U.S.-Afghan national security interests. A peace agreement that compromises the societal gains so many Americans and Afghans have fought for and sacrificed their lives to establish is not sustainable. The U.S., Afghanistan, and the world are safer today because Afghanistan has human rights including special protections for women, children and minority groups, a free press, civil society, universal education, and a representative government.

The joint effort between Afghanistan and the United States has produced a functioning, albeit fragile, democracy. Afghanistan has elected leaders who greatly value democracy, freedom, and the many benefits they bring to human life. The DPPC appreciates your leadership and unwavering commitment to ensuring this effort offers security and prosperity for both countries.

Sincerely,

Martin Rahmani

The DPPC Commends Swift Action by Afghanistan's Parliament to Impose Restrictions on GIROA's Misuse of Discretionary Spending in the National Budget

Recent Afghan media coverage has revealed excessive and irregular spending of the government's emergency fund, known as Code 91. In today's session of Parliament, Speaker Mir Rahman Rahmani instructed the Finance and Budget Committee to conduct thorough and careful oversight of spending under Code 91 and present its findings to the members of Parliament in the coming weeks.

Media reports found over 2 billion Afghanis ($25.9M) of Code 91 funding that was used to pay the personal expenses of over a dozen government officials between March 2019 and March 2020. The reports drew a strong rebuke from the Parliament and Afghan society.

"Despite immense support from our international allies to help the Afghan government fight corruption, it is unclear why the anti-corruption agencies are silent on this matter," commented Speaker Rahmani.

"Going forward, I will make sure that restrictions are placed in the national budget to prevent misuse of emergency funds by government officials in the future. I will also order relevant Committees to investigate, examine, and bring to light all of the Code 91 and other budgetary violations by the government," Rahmani added.
